ARRESTED FOR SELLING GIRL.

Antonio Thompson and Wife Accused by Cypsy at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—Mario Thompson, the 14-year-old girl who was taken from a gypsy camp Wednesday on a writ of habeas corpus, by her parents, Antonio Thompson and wife, of Los Angeles, Cal., was given into the custody of her parents by Judge Melchior.

Immediately afterward Antonio Thompson and his wife were arrested on the charge of having sold their daughter into slavery. The charge was based on the declaration of Peter Adams, a gypsy, who asserted he had paid Thompson $500 in gold for his daughter. In default of $500 bonds the Thompsons are held in custody.

Michael Angelo's House.

It is odd that Italy, so jealous of the immortal works of her great artists for monetary reasons, cares little for their historical associations. Even Michael Angelo's house in Rome, where he designed his "Last Judgment," where he wrote much, and where he died, has been allowed to vanish, leaving not a trace behind. A French writer visiting the place for inspiration for a history of the great Florentine with difficulty traced even the memorial tablet that once marked it.

Beautiful, but Unhealthy.

The most beautiful part of South Africa is the Bechuanaland Protectorate, which is, sad to say, also the unhealthiest. hood of $35,000. The deal was closed for the account of Louis Winsans of England, and the horse has been shipped to Detroit, from which point he will be exported to England.

The conclusion of the sale should not cause any surprise to horsemen, as the report that negotiations were pending between the owners and Mr. Ketchum had been previously published during the Columbus grand circuit meeting.
In fact, while Trainer Knapp McCarthy was playing to the stand at Lexington with the announced purpose of lowering the world's four-year-old stallion record of 2:05 1/4, several horsemen believed that the fast trotter was already sold for export.

Siliko was by the Walnut Hill farm's premier stallion Moke and out of the brood mare Milcon, 2:13 1/2, a daughter of Wilton, 2:10 1/4, thus representing two of the best trotting lines. He was bred by Clem Beachey, Jr., the well known Lexington trainer, and from early colthood showed speed enough to be looked upon as one of the coming champion youngsters and stake horses, particularly because he was out of a mare which in her racing days had showed great speed as a two-year-old.

In his yearling form he was broken by Trainer Clem Beachey, who, after giving the youngster a good and proper schooling, which Clem only knows how to do to the best advantage, he sold him as a two-year-old to Brook Curry and the late Charles Marvin. As the property of the two gentlemen Si-liko was started in the Lexington stake for two-year-olds in 1905 and won the event, gaining a record of 2:17 1/2, while earlier during the Lexington meeting of that year he captured third money in the two-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity.

In the following winter Mr. Madden bought the colt, then a three-year-old, for $4,000 and turned him over to

SILIKO, 2:11 1/4, STALLION, SOLD FOR $35,000, Trainer McCarthy for preparation for the big futurity of 1906. He was nursed carefully for the big youngster stake, and it is now a matter of history how the son of Moke and Milcon captured the biggest end of the rich stake at Lexington after an accident and gained a record of 2:11 1/4, which is his record still, and thus he is eligible to the 2:12 class.

He was extensively entered in all the big stakes of the racing season just closed, but neither won a race nor a heat, although he won several short and money from Detroit down to Columbus.

Early during the past spring it was generally reported that Mr. Madden's only ambition was to win the Transylvania stake, the feature event at Lexington, thus equalling the record of only another horse who had won the big futurity and the Transylvania—namely, Borluma. The way McCarthy handled Siliko throughout the grand circuit aroused much criticism, but horsemen overlooked it, believing that the colt was being saved for the Lexington event.

When it was announced at Columbus that the trotter would not start as planned in the Transylvania, the decision aroused much comment, and the withdrawal was assigned to a prospective sale, which now proves as reported at the time.

Cutler Seeking Fame.
Albert G. Cutler, champion shortstop billiardist of the world, is seeking for honor in the green cloth game. The young champion has already issued a challenge to play the winner of the 181st contest between Jacob Schaefer and George Sutton, which takes place in Chicago.

Ever since Cutler wrested the shortstop championship from Harry Cline he has been in active practice, ready to get a chance to play the experts in the class above him.

Cutler is in the form and in a recent practice game with a prominent number in Boston compiled high runs of 137, 90 and 88 in 400, finishing the game with an average of more than 30.

Right Now is the Time to Buy

CLOAKS AND SUITS

If there ever was a chance to get a high class CLOAK or SUIT at PRAC-TICALLY ONE-HALF FORMER PRICE, it is RIGHT NOW.

Every Cloak and Suit offered was bought for the fall and winter of 1907. Not a back number in the entire lot.

The Big Store has enjoyed a remarkably large sale of Cloaks and Suits up to date, but the time has come to Reduce Stock, and we mean to make every buyer a walking advertisement, as we are offering

All of our Wool Cloaks and Suits keep silent about.

It makes no difference what other merchants are doing or what they advertise to do, all we can say is that

The Biggest Bargains Await You Here!

What have we got to offer? We have Black Broadcloth Suits, about 40 of them, extra good ones, the Bostwick quality, medium and large sizes, all dependable Suits and better than those found in the average stores.

tures.

Amazon Stone in Demand.

The Amazon stone found in small quantities near Colorado Springs, Col., is greatly in demand. A firm in Germany ordered all that could be procured. The stone is green in color and hard as flint.

Mark of High Breeding.

It is a mark of high breeding to be punctilious in matters of politeness.
One cannot be too careful about such things. One burst of rudeness is never forgotten or forgiven, and the polite manner should be cultivated until it becomes a second nature.

Patience.

A man trained a tiny stream of water to fall drop by drop on a rock, and in five years it had worn a hole seven inches deep in solid stone. He could have made the same hole in fifteen minutes with a chisel and hammer.

Has Done Away with Starch.

A mother has discovered that the baby often cries because it is worried with the bit of lace about the neck of its little dress. The delicate skin of the baby was almost tortured before she discovered that it was the prickly lace that made the trouble.
For the baby's home dress she has now only bristling stitching around the neck and soon to it that not a drop of starch is put in the little garment.

Daily Thought.

We are beginning to see that money after all is not the main thing. The real values cannot be bought and sold.
We are really here to be happy and to make others happy. It is a great mistake to live simply and honestly with the times. We have got to make the most of our own time and get at the essential things as they are now, and any vital thought, any vital idea, is bound to bring fruit in some way. It is the little voice inside that we should hearken to.—John Burroughs.

Wooden Buildings and Rats.

"Why are there so few rats in New York?" remarked a man who knows all the range of nature from bugs to elephants. "Simply because there are so few wooden houses, and especially because there are so many cellars and stone walls and concrete floors. If there were no wooden buildings in the city, and none with wood in them, there would be no rats."

Noah Webster in Youth.

Noah Webster, the author of Webster's dictionary and of the famous old Webster spelling book, was a precocious boy. He entered Yale college when 16 years old. He dropped books for a time to answer the summons of drums, the revolutionary war then raging.

Cost of Glass Eyes.

The best glass eyes cost about $50 each.

ARE YOU THE MAN?

There's a scary sort of fellow going round the country through a-talking of the future in a way to make you blue;

A-predictin' woe and panics and all kinds of dreadful shocks, And a-blahnin' folks in Wall street and condemnin' deals in stocks;

Sayin' our financial system is a structure full of faults, And a-caddin' in his money and a-lookin' it in vaults,

And with wish to bring him forward and convert him if we can, We are seekin' information— Say, are you the man?

Shucks! Don't let a little flurry from the clouds a-passin' by. Make you think the storm has covered all the broad financial sky;

You would see the sun still shinin' if you'd just poke out your head; Stop a-countin' up your losses; count your blowin's up instead;

Trouble finds the man who falters sooner than the man who fights; Quit your talk of comin' panics; help at settin' things to rights,

Let a little cheerful confidence, not grumblin', be your plan Now to save the situation— Say, are you the man?

IT IS A QUESTION

Indications from Washington this morning point to the fact that the Wisconsin Primary Law is to be ignored by the national republican committee in the selection of delegates to the national convention which will nominate a candidate for president next year.

Despite the efforts of Mr. Babcock, Wisconsin's member of the national committee, it is understood this action will be taken. As a protest, Senator Stephenson called a meeting of the Wisconsin congressmen in Washington last evening and resolutions condemning the probable action of the committee were drawn up and will be presented to that committee by Congressman Cooper.

Wisconsin has a primary law. The law was endorsed by the will of the people and while it remains on the statute it should govern all phases of the election question. As to its merits or demerits they are not at stake in this issue, but the law should be sustained and the action of the national republican committee in refusing to recognize it should be fought to the bitter end.

The action of Mr. Babcock in opposing such action is justified and the senators and congressmen who have entered a vigorous protest should be congratulated. It is hoped that their efforts will not be in vain and that matters may be adjusted satisfactorily without encroaching hard feelings.

While the republican party has been split on many questions of state legislation for several years they should be united on this matter and present a bold front to the infringement of an arbitrary ruling by the national committee.

CORTELYOU'S REPORT

Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou yesterday gave to congress his report on the financial condition of the United States. It is most encouraging but like the president he places the blame for the present stringency in ready cash upon the shoulders of the bankers and financiers who have for months past been hoarding their money.

Mr. Cortelyou shows that the national finances are in good condition and that the treasury department has done much to alleviate the trouble arising from the money stringency.

Get-Rich=Quick

Wallingford said:

"It always helps some to remember that in this big United States people have been saving up money for years, just waiting for me to come and get it."

Which led to this reflection:

"I've never taken a fall out of the insurance game, and it sounds good. Ten cents seems like a piker game, but when we've got 250,000 members, that trifling ante amounts to $25,000 a month."

The conclusion is a live-wire story of credulous savers and an unscrupulous spender; it is the second story in MR. GEORGE RANDOLPH CHESTER'S Get-Rich-Quick series; it is called

Profitable Benevolence

and it appears in the Christmas Number of

FLEEK'S ANNEX

Owing to the constant increase in our Jewelry Dep't. and the crowded condition of our store, we have decided to close out our Art Department and hereafter continue with Jewelry and Music alone. This conclusion has been reached with no small amount of regret as this department of business has always been one of the most remunerative and pleasant. With the fact before us that we must have more room to properly display our Jewelry Department we have cleared out part of our piano room and for a few weeks will devote it to the Art Goods as an annex to our store. We have placed in this room the entire line of Pictures and Frames of all kinds, Vases, Potteries, Statuary, China, Glass, Writing Sets, Smoking Sets, Japanese Goods, Brass Goods, Water Color Paintings, Bric-a-brac and many other articles.

For the purpose of closing these goods out quick we are making a bonafide reduction of 1-4 to 1-2 of Former Prices.

These goods will make the finest of Christmas presents and we advise you to call at once and make your selections and goods will be held for you until Christmas if you wish.

WONDERFUL COAT AND SUIT BARGAINS

The special offerings this week in our Cloak Department ought to equal last week's in desirability, and last week's made a record for themselves. We did an enormous business last week on Cloaks and Suits. At our prices we had no competition. Nor could we have any. Dorothy's View of Shaving.

Dorothy is a tiny maid of four, whose father always gets shaved at the barber's. When on a visit recently she found an uncle who shaved himself. She watched this performance with intense but silent astonishment for two or three mornings but finally broke out with: "What makes you do that, Uncle Will? My papa doesn't wash his face with a little broom and wipe it with a knife."

Feet of Various Peoples.

The French foot is meager, narrow and bony. The Spanish is small and finely curved. The Arab foot is proverbial for its high arch—"A stream can run under the hollow of it." The foot of a Scot is large and thick; the Irish foot is flat and square, and the English short and fleshy.

TWO MEN PROMINENT IN THE EARLY DAYS

Dr. George Lee and Attorney Neil

Residents of City in the Fifties.

How many residents of Janesville at the present time remember Dr.
George W. Lee, Attorney James Neil, both probably and yet of the residents who that fifty years ago these two men were prominent in the affairs of this city.

But what of it? Nothing much, except that here we have a typical exemplification of the old idea that fame is almighty fleeting. In the early pioneer days, when civic affairs—national, state and local—were in the crucial, formative stage these two men were active in the affairs of men who were laying the foundation for present greatness and success, and not merely this, but both Dr. Lee and Mr. Neil were personally identified with undertakings then but bestingling, which have since developed into mammoth institutions. Still, they and their descendants are so little known in the community where they lived and became once prominent, that information concerning them cannot be obtained.

The concrete condition that calls the above to mind is this: Both Dr.
Lee and James Neil, away back in 1867, were incorporators of the company that has since become The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company of Milwaukee. The company began business in Janesville in 1868 and to commemorate the occasion it proposes to issue a statistical history next year. One of the great ures of the work is to be a biographical sketch and photograph of each of the thirty-six incorporators, and this will be of particular interest to Janesvillians as many of these incorporators lived here. Indeed, no less than sixteen were from this city alone, to-wit: John Peat Dickson, Edward Lothrop Dimock, William Ward Holden, Solomon Hutson, James H. Knowlton, Dr. George W. Lee, Thomas Lap-ple, Edward McKoy, John Mitchell, Peter Myers, Judge David Kogge, James Neil, Benjamin Franklin Pix-ley, Morris Clark Smith, Joseph Alonzo Sleeper and Josiah Flint Willard.

The compiler of the history through the co-operation of relatives and friends of these men, all of whom are now dead, has gotten track of all except Dr. Lee and James Neil, and if any person now in Janesville knows anything of them or their families, or who were friends of the men and their descendants, they will be something of old residents of this city a turn, as well as assisting in historical work, if they will communicate with the company's historical department.

HAPPYLAND PROVES
DELIGHTFUL OPERA

DeWolf Hopper and Marguerite Clark

Delight Large Audience at Myers Theatre.

Transporting their audience to the wonderful land of "Elysium" on the horizon of "Happyland," DeWolf Hopper, he of the long legs and the wigg-lish expression, and dainty and perfect Marguerite Clark last night delighted a large audience at the Myers Theatre with their production of "Happyland." There is enough of a plot to the production to carry out the dialogue and call forth the catchy songs that pervade the entire play.
Gorgeous costumes and excellent stage effects bring out the play. Without Hopper and Marguerite Clark, however, it is doubtful if it would prove attractive. Hopper is still all legs and wig, while Marguerite Clark has improved with the years, training since her appearance here a year ago. Julian Reed as "Sphinxus," the King's confidential advisor and royal keeper of secrets, proved excellent.
William Wolf as the King of "Altruria," was a good foil for Hopper and his jokes. Joseph Phillips as crown prince of "Fortunia," had a wonderful voice which several times with Miss Clark gave him an opportunity to demonstrate. Ada Denay made a most acceptable lady of "Altruria" and Nellie Shyne, Alice Hills, Elsie Murray and Dorothy James made charming ladies in waiting.
"Pedro," the servant who impersonated the supposed son of King Eascattus, and Detmar Poppin and George Odell, officers in the "Elysian Huzzars," added to the interest of the production. A well-trained chorus with dainty costumes gave the opera a finish that would be hard to equal. Miss Clark, however, carried off the stellar honors and her charming dainty mannerisms and pretty face and figure give promise of future success for her in an opera which is now being written for her to appear as a star. It is understood that Miss Clark, however, will not leave the "Happyland" company until the end of the present season.

FOREST CITY LADIES
CHARMINGHOSTESSES

Seventeen Janesville Bridge Players

Were Royally Entertained Yesterday—Mrs. Judd Had Highest Honor Score.

Janesville ladies who attended the bridge whist tournament at the Brown Tea Pot in Rockford yesterday and who were guests of Mrs. William B. Harbour at a 12 o'clock breakfast after the play, returned last evening profuse in their praises and expressions of appreciation of the hospitality of their hostess. From the moment of their arrival until their departure on the homeward six o'clock interurban car they were royally entertained. Carriages conveyed them to the Harbour home where covers had been laid for eighteen at a prettily appointed table, set in the form of a "T," and on which fruit and flowers formed the centerpiece.
The engagement at the Brown Tea Pot began at two o'clock with fifty ladies in attendance. Mrs. Clarence Sanborn of Rockford, Mrs. Clarence Sanborn of Rockford, Mrs. W. H. Judd of Janesville, the prize for the highest honor score; and Mrs. C. S. Jackson of this city, the consolation. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the playing.

FIRST BIG MASQUE
BALL OF SEASON

Was Given by the Janesville Camp of Spanish War Veterans Last Evening and Proved Brilliant

Success.

With three hundred in attendance, including a large number of visitors from Rockford and Madison, the masque ball given by Janesville Camp of the United Spanish-American War Veterans at Assembly hall last evening proved to be a big success in every particular. The dancers formed in line for the grand march at eleven o'clock and the procession was headed by six Red Cross army nurses—the Mesdames Edwin Falter, George Kyeck, Bert Hill, Jesse M. Dixon, and the Mesdames Edna and Emma Larson. There were many unique and beautiful costumes, with the comedy element as usual, predominating and the Dutchman make-up of William Thorn was one of the big hits of the evening. The music was by Kneff & Hatch's orchestra and the last waltz was played at one o'clock this morning.

HOW POTATOES MAY BE KEPT PERFECTLY

Interesting Correspondent Writes on

New Method to Preserve Tubers.

On account of the shortness of the growing season the potatoes had to be taken out of the earth before they reached their maturity, hence their size is small, and have very thin skins, which by handling is often damaged, causing an evaporation, a fast shriveling and a loss of nutrition and taste.

Some potatoes have grown to a moderate large size but many of them prove to be hollow and show yellowish spots in the center of their body, which later on prove to be an indication of rot.

To store potatoes in a massive built cellar, into which by going in and out, the cold and warm air have an access and the hydrogen and carbonic acid and other gases of the surrounding atmosphere can accumulate, the walls and floor of the cellar become more or less damp increased by evaporation and sweating of the potatoes, when stored which causes fermentation and a creation of a fungus multiply to such an extent that in a short time every potato is affected and causes to rot. Hence it is imperatively necessary to prevent or stop the rot on the already yellow spotted potatoes and place in each corner of the cellar an empty soap box and fill each box half full with fresh burned lime lumps, which in the course of a short time, absorb from the cellar air all hydrogen and carbonic acid and other obnoxious gases, to purify the cellar air, and prevent the existence of fungus growth and save the already affected potatoes from rot. The lime in said boxes will in the course of months get slack and slimy and become for the purpose worthless, but will serve as fertilizer.

If in a potato pile, some yellow spotted potatoes do exist the cellar floor must be covered with air slaked lime dust or with hydrated lime before the potatoes, to be stored, are placed and if a six inches thick layer of lime dust is placed, a thin layer of lime dust to be spread on top of it, the same to be done until all the potatoes be stored and the cellar filled with it.

The hydrated lime stops every fermentation and destroys every existing rot fungus and if small rotten spots on the potatoes do exist they become dry and harmless. It is further advisable in storing seed potatoes to spread lime dust between the potatoes, which when covered with it and planted into the earth it decomposes all half rotten manure and vegetable matters and acts as a protector against rot and as a good fertilizer.

Vegetables stored in a cellar which contains fresh burned lime lumps can be for a long time preserved from rot and the small of obnoxious gases, and if lime dusted potatoes are brought upon the market the consumer can rest assured not to receive and pay for rotten potatoes and important fungus (rot) in his cellar, he should give lime dusted potatoes always the preference.

A prejudice exists by some kitchen-masters against lime dusted potatoes without their knowledge that such potatoes be more nutritious healthy, and prove a better taste, than yellow spotted, half rotten or sick potatoes.

Paid Pretty Compliment.

A newly wedded husband who was very much in love with his wife was trying to explain to her the other day how lonesome it was to get home and find her gone. "Why, do you know," said he, "when I get home and find you're not here it seems as if there weren't any pictures on the walls."

NOTED ACTRESS A SUICIDE
 Mrs. Clara Bloodgood kills herself in Baltimore.

Only Known Reason for Action is That She Feared Attack of Nervous Prostration.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Clara Bloodgood, the actress, committed sui-cide by shooting in her room at the Hotel Stafford here Thursday evening.

Mrs. Bloodgood's body was found ly-ing on the bed with a bullet hole through the roof of her mouth. Near-by lay a book entitled "How to Shoot Straight," and a 38-caliber revolver with three chambers empty. She at-tended a matinee performance at Al-ban's theater in the afternoon and returned to her hotel about four o'clock, seemingly in the best of spirits.

Later when it was time for the cur-tain to rise for her own show at the Academy of Music, where she was ap-pearing in "The Truth," she had not put in an appearance. Word was sent to the Stafford and a bellboy was sent up to her room. Just as he approached the door he heard a pistol shot. Hur-rying back to the office he notified the clerks and an investigation was made, and Mrs. Bloodgood was found dead on her bed.

Before retiring to her room she had a talk with her stage manager, John Emerson, who declared that he ob-served nothing unusual in her be-havior. The only motive he can as-cribe is that Mrs. Bloodgood feared an attack of nervous prostration. She had been working very hard, he said, and "she feared" a breakdown. Mrs. Bloodgood left a note addressed to her husband, who was said to be on his way to this city.

The audience at the Academy of Music was dismissed with the an-nouncement that there would be no performance owing to a sudden indis-position of Mrs. Bloodgood.

KANSAS CITY BANK CLOSES.
 Second Financial Institution in That City is in Distress.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 6.—The Na-tional Bank of Commerce, the second financial institution in importance in Kansas City, announced its suspension instead of opening Thursday morning, after a steady run of six weeks during which the bank had paid off $10,000,000 of its deposits, reduced its loans $3,500,000, cut down its cash resources $11,750,000 and sold $2,000,000 of high-grade bonds in an effort to meet the demands upon it.

The controller of the currency ap-pointed James T. Brady, national bank examiner, as temporary receiver of the bank, and he at once took charge. He has issued no statement as to the bank's condition, nor have the officers of the bank. The directors of the bank made a statement to the public saying that the bank could not stand "slandorous statements made against it," and saying they do not believe it possible for a depositor to lose a dollar.

POLICE WILL SIT ON "LID" NEW YORK TO BE CLOSED TIGHT SUNDAY, SAYS BINGHAM.

No Form of Entertainment Will Be Permitted—Managers Agree to Close Theaters.

New York, Dec. 6.—At a special meeting of the Theatrical Managers' association Thursday it was decided that all theaters would remain closed on Sunday and that no test case of Justice O'Gorman's construction of the Sabbath entertainment law was to be made.

Earlier in the day, Police Commis-sioner Bingham announced that not in regard to playhouses alone, but in every other respect, next Sunday would be the "lightest" in New York's history.

Gen. Bingham announced that the prohibition against Sunday theatrical performances and the strict enforce-ment of the excise law were part of his program. He said, further, that there would be no racing at the six-day bicycle contest, which is an-nounced to begin at Madison Square garden next Sunday night, before the hour of midnight. He added that the doors would not be allowed to open at ten o'clock Sunday night and that he would not tolerate the gathering of a crowd around the entrance to the garden prior to the final stroke of the clock on the midnight hour. Every law in the statute books would be enforced to the letter, the commis-sioner announced.

Commissioner Bingham said: "I have my instructions in the decision of the court in the case, and I shall follow them to the letter. A place in Fifth avenue or Broadway is no better than a place on Coney island, and I shall play no favorites."

"All music in restaurants must stop, and the order applies as well to the lectures and pictures of foreign lands that are given or exhibited at the Y. M. C. A."

"Take it from me," concluded the commissioner, "that on Sunday the lid will be on tight on all theatrical or musical entertainments or other places covered by the decision in the theater case, and the whole police force of New York will be sitting on it."

Every theater, music hall, and even the opera houses will be closed Sun-day night. A conservative estimate of the loss thus entailed is given by one manager as approximately $200,000. Hope of immediate relief, how-ever, is held forth by the board of aldermen, members of which have as-sured the various managers that at the board meeting on Tuesday next measures would be taken to amend the city charter so that entertain-ments may be given a week from the coming Sunday. But this will apply solely to musical concerts, as the aldermen have not the power to legalize other forms of amusement.

SHOT BY A CRAZY MAN.
 Three Labor Leaders of Boston Wounded in State House.

Driscoll, of Boston, secretary of the same board, and injuring with the muzzle of his revolver Arthur M. Huddell, of Boston, former president of the Central Labor union of this city.

 GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR

AND WE CAN PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. There-fore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

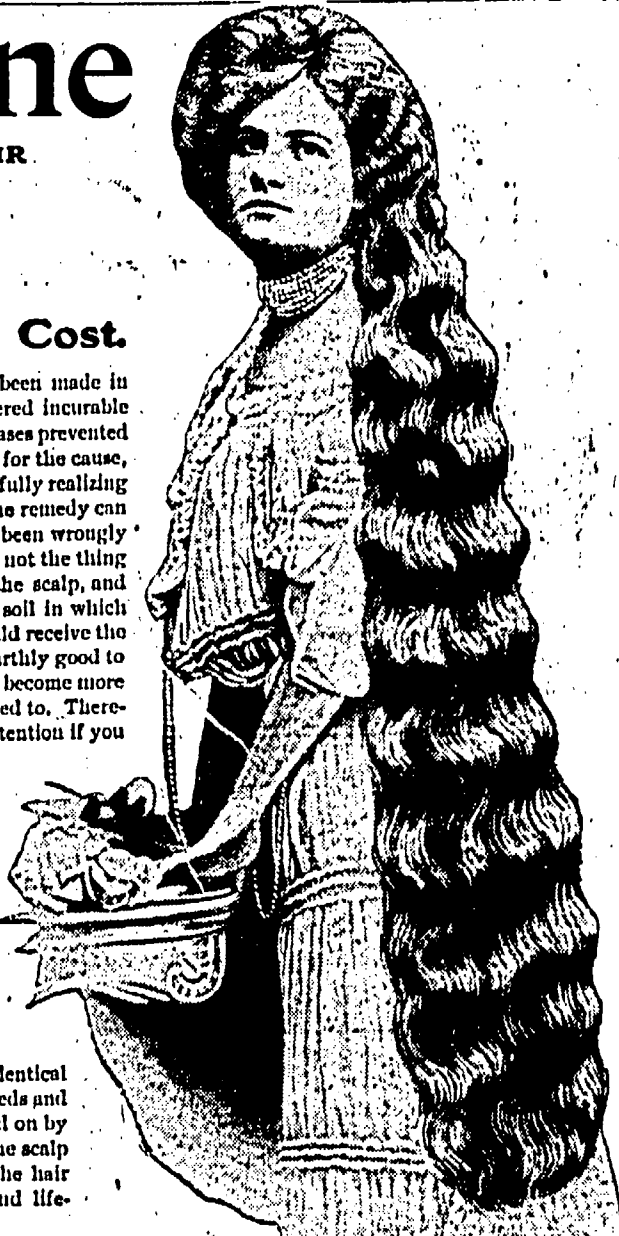

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.
